

Hope 4 Women International

Current Business Update

TUBA

Woman's Name: Jennifer Olwalo

Current photos

Jennifer with her goats, her mattress and her grandchildren.

HER HEALTH

Jennifer is fine according to her.

HEALTH OF CHILDREN.

The children are fine according to her.

BUSINESS

Retail shop but she changed to rearing of animals because she was making losses.

PROGRESS

Bought five goats.

OTHER ACTIVITIES.

Plants maize, beans and potatoes for home use and some surplus for sale.

BENEFITS TO HER FAMILY

Jennifer has benefited in the following ways:

- Bought five goats.
- Bought a mattress for 90,000 shillings.
- Bought books for her grandchildren.
- Buys basic necessities for her family on time.
- Saves 5,000 shillings per week for future investments.

FUTURE PLAN

Plans to trade her goats for a cow for family milk.

ASSESSMENT

According to Jennifer, the savings and goats will help her go on with business when her sponsorship ends.

CONCLUSION

“Dear my friends Suzanne Beck’s Group, thank you so much for supporting me. May God bless you and reward you abundantly. Through your support, I bought five goats, a mattress and am able to save 5,000 shillings per week for future investments. Thank you so much for loving me and standing with me. I wish you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year 2019. God bless you”
Your friend Jennifer.